

Bundesliga in Heubach

This weekend I participated at the Bike the Rock in Heubach, Germany.

In the first three of seven laps I couldn't find my rhythm and my head blocked me a little bit in the downhill then it was really slippery. In the last laps the power and the ability to suffer came back. I finished 21th. Not really happy about that but also not that bad. Next week next chance - worldcup in Offenburg.

Absalon won the race. On 2nd and 3rd was Paulissen and Hermida.
